• Being Faithful to Christ

Today in Rome, Pope Francis will canonize Archbishop Oscar Romero of El Salvador, in addition to Pope Paul VI. Cardinal Cupich and Bishop Ron Hicks will be participating in the celebrations.

Selected as archbishop of San Salvador in 1977, Romero served during a time of intense political turbulence and religious persecution. Through his homilies, radio sermons, and newspaper articles, Romero became the voice of his country's conscience.

Constantly referring to the message of the gospel, he condemned the violence and corruption that plagued his country. Countless threats against his life didn't deter Romero. In one homily, he said, "You can tell the people that if they succeed in killing me, I forgive and bless those who do it. Hopefully, they will realize they are wasting their time. A bishop will die, but the Church of God, which is the people, will never perish." On March 24, 1980, as he was saying Mass, a lone gunman stood at the door of the chapel and fired. Romero, who was standing at the altar, was shot in the heart and died on the spot.

In his letter announcing Romero's canonization, Pope Francis wrote, "In the beautiful land of Central America, bathed by the Pacific Ocean, the Lord granted his Church a zealous bishop who, loving God and serving brothers and sisters, became the image of Christ the Good Shepherd. In times of difficult coexistence, Archbishop Romero knew how to lead, defend and protect his flock. . . . And at the moment of his death, while he celebrated the Holy Sacrifice of love and reconciliation, he received the grace to identify himself fully with the One who gave his life for his sheep."

Oscar Romero lived out today's readings. He chose God's wisdom over the wealth and comfort of the world. He proclaimed the word of God in a way that cut people to the heart. And he gave everything to the poor of El Salvador. May his witness move all of us to answer the cry of the poor and downtrodden.

• The Best Medicine of All

There is a popular idea that humor and laughter can actually have beneficial effects on our physical health. It can improve our immunity, pain tolerance, blood pressure, longevity, and illness symptoms. Even though researchers are still trying to find enough scientific evidence to support these claims, it seems worthwhile to try this prescription. I doubt if a little humor and laughter have any dangerous side-effects.

Our parish is offering good dose of medicine on Wednesday night, October 17th as we celebrate our Fall Fundraiser at the Second City Comedy Theater on North Avenue right here in Old Town. Their staff will present a private show written especially for Immaculate Conception and St. Joseph Parish. A little Catholic humor can certainly lift up our spirits. The show is entitled, "Save Ours Souls at Second City."

Note that seating is limited. Today's bulletin has more information on how you can order tickets. Come and take care of your heart, mind, and soul. You'll feel a whole lot better.

• God's Healing Love

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated next weekend on October 20th and 21st, at the 5:00 p.m., 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Masses. We pray for God's healing and peace to be upon all who are ill in mind, body or spirit.

A family of families

One of the huge misconceptions about this sacrament is that it is perceived as something reserved exclusively for those who are terminally ill. Not so. It is a sacrament for the living, like the other sacraments. Many people are anointed as part of their recovery back to full health. Plus, the sacrament is administered to children, young adults, as well as the elderly.

Note that transportation to church is also available on Sunday. Please call our Parish Office to make a reservation for a ride. Also, our Ministry of Care program provides the Eucharist and prays with those individuals who are unable to attend Mass on Sunday. Our ministers commonly visit parishioners in hospitals, rehabilitation centers, nursing homes and those homebound. Please call the Parish Office if you would like a Minister of Care to visit.

Congratulations to Allie Salamone who received the highly distinguished Christifidelis Award (“Being Faithful to Christ”) from Bishop Ron Hicks at Holy Name Cathedral last Sunday. The award recognizes her great service to our parish community and beyond.

• All Creatures of our God and King

HIGH SIGHT

Become a tutor. Change a life.

HighSight, located at 315 W. Walton, seeks academic tutors for its Catholic High School scholarship recipients. The commitment is for two hours, once a week. Volunteers can tutor on Tuesday or Wednesday evenings or Saturday mornings. Call Jesus Gomez at 312-787-9824, ext. 229 or email at jesus.gomez@highsight.org for more information. Learn more about HighSight at www.highsight.org.

Did You Know? HighSight was founded in the spring of 1992 to assist the alumni of ICSJ's old St. Joseph Elementary School. Two of the school's volunteer tutors were determined to make a difference in the lives of these students, most of whom were encountering the ills of urban life and underachieving in high school. The goal was to help seven students graduate from high school. After a few years of functioning entirely on a volunteer basis, HighSight succeeded beyond its original dreams and in 1995 began life as its own tax-exempt organization.

Catching Up With Some Of Our Refugee Families

In case you are counting, we now have sponsored 4.5 refugee families—the half being our single gentleman from Ethiopia who came to us after 12 years in a refugee camp!! Our most recent family arrival from Myanmar (once Burma), who we are co-sponsoring with our sister Parish, St. Teresa of Avila, are slowly adapting to their new country. The three kids—3, 5 and 7—are in school, learning English at a fast clip and two new ICSJ Parish volunteers will begin visits to the family in October.

Meanwhile, we had TWO big milestones to celebrate. Ben Feriend (4), Jane Snodgrass (2), Tristan Sai (3), and Caroline Feriend (2) gathered at Tristan's house on August 26 to celebrate Tristan's 3rd birthday. Tristan's parents, Aa Ka and Lin, provided a bunch of yummy treats to eat, and everyone had a blast!

And celebrating their First Year here in Chicgo is our wonderful family of ladies; mom and her twin adult daughters, who are also Rohingya from Myanmar. With a small group of devoted volunteers, all is going well with them. Nashimah, Munirah, Ramadana, Bob Luckey, and Maria Simon and her husband John Taylor were among the celebrants at the Sabri Nihari Restaurant on Devon.

Anyone interested in joining the volunteer ranks with any of our families—at your pace and within your time constraints—we would say “welcome aboard.” You truly will get more than you give with any of these wonderful families!

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

In the Gospel reading for World Mission Sunday, Jesus reminds us of His mission "to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many" (Mark 10:45). Through Renew My Church, we embrace this mission in which He calls us to serve others and give new life in Christ. In celebrating World Mission Sunday, we as members of the Church in the Archdiocese of Chicago proclaim the life-giving presence of Jesus Christ throughout our world.

The World Mission Sunday collection, celebrated worldwide on October 21, provides vital assistance to over 1,000 economically poor dioceses responding to spiritual and material needs across Africa, Asia, and remote areas of Latin America and the Pacific Islands. It also resources churches and religious congregations that accompany people facing poverty, violent conflict, and displacement in the Middle East, Northeast Africa, India and Eastern Europe.

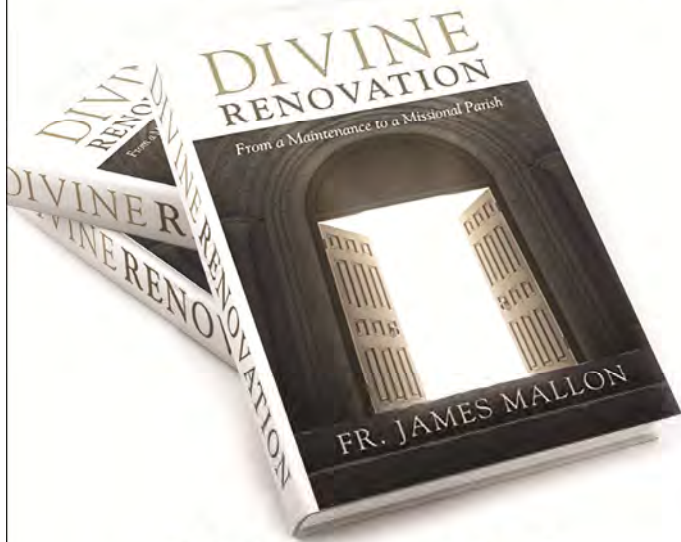

It is my hope that every parish in the Archdiocese of Chicago embraces World Mission Sunday as an opportunity to join with the global Church in making disciples throughout our world, as we are called to do during the Renew My Church process. May our witness inspire others in our Chicago community, especially young people, to embrace the call to love and follow Christ. With every good wish, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

ICSJ Book Discussion

“Divine Renovation”

Moving From Maintenance to Mission

Let's Talk About It

Wednesday, October 24th at 6:30 p.m.
at Immaculate Conception Church

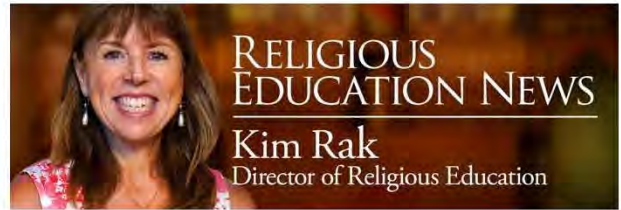

The sign of a good book is that it challenges you; that it makes you question where you are at, and makes you ask where you want to be.

Fr. James Mallon's Divine Renovation does just that. It challenges us to ask serious questions about the culture of maintenance found in the Catholic Church and urges us to boldly go out into the culture with the message of Christ. We Catholics have the fullness of truth; but why are we so scared to share it with others?

Divine Renovation is a practical guide to spiritually renovating our parishes. How do we care for and nurture the interior heart, the culture, of our parishes?

Fr. Mallon identifies very real issues inside the Church. For example, the inclination to support structures and institutions over people, especially those “that no-longer serve the mission or that prevent the mission from being fulfilled.”

This Fall, parishioners will have the opportunity for parishioners to gather and discuss the book. There will be plenty to discuss. However, reading the book will have great value even if you choose not to participate in the discussion.

Welcome New Altar Servers!

Recently Father Larry, Toni Gamble, our sacristan, and I trained nine students to help our parish with Altar Serving Ministry. They are now able to serve at weekend Masses, school and Family Masses and weddings.

Thank you to these students for taking the initiative to learn to serve God with gladness:

SPRED-ing The Good News

A few weeks ago, with the help of the Knights of Columbus and their annual Tootsie Roll Drive, we asked for your financial help in support of Spred. However, as we collected the donations, we discovered that many of you really weren't sure of what the Spred Ministry is... or what it represents? So, I would like to explain exactly how your contributions are working and how they are impacting the lives of our special friends.

SPRED stands for "Special Religious Development."

This ministry reaches out to all within our church community who have family members with developmental disabilities. Its unique program was specifically designed to help those with "special needs" grow in their faith. Spred offers them a personal and spiritual pathway to discovering Jesus by becoming more aware of the Presence of Christ in their daily lives.

We are now in our second year of Spred and on this October 3rd, we held our 1st community session here at IC in the Spred Room. Our team of 7 Catechist hosted our adult group, which currently consist of 3 friends, Ronald, Mariel and our new member, Jackson. Thankfully, through the guidance of the Holy Spirit and Catechesis, we were able to create a sacred environment of family, fellowship, peace and joy.

However, it is because of your generosity and the continued support of IC/SJ, that our expenses for supplies are covered, but more importantly, your donations have enable us to further God's mission.

Over the coming months, as we continue with our sessions, I plan to update you periodically, so that you can learn more about Spred and our continued progress.

So with hearts of gratitude, we say "thank you" believing that in time you will see how your return is so much greater than just receiving that "tootsie roll."

Sincerely,

Janice Raclaw & The Spred Team

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION ST. JOSEPH SCHOOL

Second City Workshop Recently, ICSJ 8th Grade students participated in a Debate and Public Speaking Workshop hosted by The Second City. Through improvisational exercises and games students leveraged listening, collaboration, and creative problem solving to improve their communication skills. What a fun and productive way to strengthen their skills!

Song Writing Last week, our 5th grade students enjoyed a special visit from singer/songwriter Pat McKillen. In Language Arts, students have been learning how to write narratives, and Pat McKillen helped students bring narratives to life through song. In small groups, students worked to write lyrics to a class song - "I'm Gonna Be on Top!" Yes you are 5th grade! Visit our Facebook or Instagram pages to hear the final song (@icsjschool).

St. Frances of Assisi Pet Blessing Last week, Rev. Frank Latzko from St-Teresa of Avila visited ICSJ to bless our pets in honor of the Feast of St Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of animals. We are so grateful for this special blessing for the four legged ICSJ family members!
