Follow ICSJ Parish on Social Media

We're on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter with even more news, photos, stories, and spiritual nourishment. Have your own parish photos or stories to share? Use #icsjparish or send them to siteadmin@icsjparish.org.

This Sunday our parish will begin conducting an important Gallup Poll Survey to assess and enhance the spiritual health of our parish. The survey, that consists of 25 simple questions, will only take about 10 minutes to complete.

We hope that each household will be able to participate. Your feedback is very important, and your input will be anonymous.

Thank you for taking the time to help our parish spiritually grow.

• Eternal Rest Grant onto Them O Lord

We have had a number of funerals this past week in the parish. These are important moments when we come together to remember and celebrate the life, love and faith of those who have died. Prayer has the power to bring healing, hope and peace, especially during our time of loss. Our lives have been blessed by the following individuals. I ask that you keep their families in your thoughts and prayers in the days.

Alvin Halloway

Alvin was born December 6, 1952. He was the first of nine children. Alvin attended Jenner Elementary School and then went on to further his education at Cooley Vocational high school.

He leaves in mourning his mother Rosie; his loving wife of 34 years, Adrienne, his son Alvin Jr.; two brothers, Hollis and Kevin; three sisters, Debra, Laurie, and Melanie; five grandchildren; several nieces; and a host of friends and relatives.

You will always find Adrienne, Alvin's wife, on Sunday morning at the 8:00 a.m. Mass at St. Joseph's church. She always seated in the last pew on the left saying her prayers.

James Marr

James Marr, formerly of Chicago and recently of Berwyn, lived to be 95. He is the beloved brother of Corrine (the late Raymond) Svoboda, the late Carmella, and the late Laverne. Jim's ambition was to be a pitcher for the Chicago Cubs. In the early 40's he was successful in competing against the Cub's farm team as a leading pitcher for the Kingsport Cherokees.

Jim was raised also as the son of a printing typesetter. After baseball, he eventually formed the Continental Printing Company which he owned and operated for fifty years. He enjoyed printing the Catholic publications for the Mother Cabrini Messenger magazine.

Martin Lundgren

Martin was a long-time resident of the Old Town neighborhood. He was 89 years old. He lived on Wells street since 1930 with his wife Shun Shun. He is survived by his wife, and his three sons Mark, Martin and Eric. He had a great sense of humor and loved Italian cooking. You would often see him on the front steps of his house watching the folks go bye.

Anthony Fielek

Anthony lived to the age of 78. He is the beloved husband of the late Carole, and dear father of Anne (the late Victor) Lee, and Amy Fielek. He is the brother to Stephen (Candy), Michael (Gretchen) Mary Ann and the late Andrew (Elizabeth) Fielek.

You will see Amy, Tony's daughter, regularly at the Saturday 5:00 p.m. Mass at Immaculate Conception Church. She serves as a Sacristan, Lector and Eucharistic Minister.

• Grab a Bag

We will be collecting food during the month of October for our Parish Food Pantry, as part of our celebration of Respect Life month. We certainly can use your non-perishable donations to help re-stock our shelves that have emptied out over the summer.

You can grab a brown grocery bag from church today and fill it up with supplies. You can return the bag next Sunday when you come to church. Whatever you can donate will make a huge difference.

• Being Faithful to Christ!

Congratulations to Tom Slavin who received the highly distinguished Christifidelis Award (Being Faithful to Christ) from Cardinal Cupich last Sunday at Queen of All Saints Basilica. The award recognizes Tom's great service to our parish community and beyond.

Fr. Lacey

So, you've heard of Spiritual Direction but are not quite sure what all it entails. What exactly is a Spiritual Director? It is someone who is there to help you notice how God is in the midst of the ordinary experiences of your life journey.

Is it professional counseling? No. Is it a problem-solving practice? No. It's not like fixing anyone or anything. It's more like a wellness practice. Spiritual direction is a one-to-one personal relationship where confidentiality is respected. It is a "safe place" to share without judgement or criticism.

My name is Denise Ryan. I am a wife, a mother, a grandmother as well as a seeker like you. I embarked on the study of spiritual direction/spiritual presence because, like you, I was searching for divine connections within my own life history.

Where are you feeling out of balance? When or where are you most likely to be aware of God's presence? Do feel that God is "missing in action" in your prayer life? We can explore these kinds of questions together through attentive listening and prayerful consideration. I truly believe that the Holy Spirit has guided me into this ministry and God's Spirit is moving throughout spiritual direction.

If these questions resonate with you, perhaps you would benefit from journeying with a Spiritual Director.

I can be reached at: denisebryan06@comcast.net if you have questions or would like to make an appointment.

Community Helpers in the Classroom

PreK3 students have been learning about community helpers in their recent social studies unit. What a great surprise to have two special community helpers visit the classroom! Officer Ryan shared a story about police officers and the students were able to try on his official hat, hold his badge and more!

Nurse Smith explained the many ways we can stay healthy such as washing our hands, eating healthy foods, and making sure to get lots of sleep at night. Thank you, Officer Ryan and Nurse Smith, for all of the work you do for the ICSJ Community!
